Annex for the Clearing of Derivatives via LCH Limited to the Clearing Framework Agreement 2019 (“Framework Agreement”)

The following is agreed:
between

|---|
| Name and address of the Counterparty |
| (hereinafter referred to as “Counterparty”) |

|-------------------------------------|
| Name and address of the Bank |
| (hereinafter referred to as “Bank”) |

(Bank and Counterparty jointly hereinafter referred to as “Parties”)

1. Purpose and Scope of this Annex

In addition to the provision of the Framework Agreement, the following provisions shall apply to LCH.Ltd-Transactions:

2. Definitions

The definitions of the Framework Agreement and the following additional definitions shall apply within the meaning of this Annex:

- „Clearing Rulebook“ means the provisions, terms and conditions of LCH.Ltd (rules and regulations of LCH.Ltd within the meaning of Section 1 paragraph (4) of the Framework Agreement), as published and amended by LCH.Ltd from time to time. The Clearing Rulebook is governed by English law.
- “LCH.Ltd” means LCH Limited, registered in the Company Register of England under Company No. 00025932, and any of its successors in right.
- “LCH.Ltd-Transaction” means each transaction within the meaning of Section 1 paragraph (1) sub-paragraph (b) or (c) of the Framework Agreement to be cleared via LCH.Ltd.
- “LCH.Ltd-Contract” means an OTC-contract within the meaning of Section 1 paragraph (3) of the Framework Agreement concluded between the Bank and LCH.Ltd.

3. Amendment or Termination of Transactions

- (1) The parties shall exercise any discretion afforded to them in relation to LCH.Ltd-Transactions, in particular concerning the calculations and the election of a particular currency or type of settlement, in accordance with the Clearing Rulebook and discretion exercised by LCH.Ltd in relation to LCH.Ltd-Contracts.
- (2) Where the transfer of LCH.Ltd-Contracts from another clearing member to the Bank or from the Bank to another clearing member also includes claims for the retransfer of collateral, the provisions under Section 4 paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Annex concerning the posting of collateral and under Section 4 paragraph (3) of this Annex concerning the release of collateral shall apply mutatis mutandis.
- (3) If it is impossible or impracticable for the Bank to maintain the LCH.Ltd-Transaction following its adjustment pursuant to Section 1 paragraph (10) of the Framework Agreement, the Bank may – notwithstanding Section 4 paragraph (1) sentence 4 of the Framework Agreement – terminate the LCH.Ltd-Transaction by notifying the Counterparty, such termination taking effect on the date specified in the notification. Section 1 paragraph (8) sentence 2 of the Framework Agreement shall apply mutatis mutandis.

4. Initial Margin and Variation Margin

- (1) The amount of collateral to be posted for LCH.Ltd-Transactions shall – as a minimum – correspond to the margining requirements applicable between the Bank and LCH.Ltd for LCH.Ltd-Contracts. Any disbursements resulting from assets posted as collateral for LCH.Ltd-Transactions shall be added to the total amount of collateral posted for LCH.Ltd-Transactions where the Clearing Rulebook provides for such addition in relation to LCH.Ltd-Contracts.

- (2) Collateral for LCH.Ltd-Transactions shall be posted exclusively by way of full title transfer and free of any rights and claims of the transferring party or third parties, and has at all times to conform to assets accepted as collateral by LCH.Ltd. The Bank shall be entitled to fully or partially exclude certain assets which are accepted as collateral by LCH.Ltd from being eligible as collateral for LCH.Ltd-Transactions.
- (3) Any release of collateral shall be effected by way of full title transfer of assets which are equivalent to the assets originally posted as collateral. Assets are to be considered to be “equivalent”, where these correspond in type, currency, description, nominal value and amount to the assets posted as collateral – in the case of debt securities, including the total amount of all cash amounts and other assets. Paragraph (1) applies mutatis mutandis to the amount and point in time of the retransfer of collateral.

5. Special obligations of the parties

- (1) The bank shall be obligated to execute a “Security Deed”, substantially in the form attached hereto as Appendix 1.
- (2) The “Security Deed” shall apply with the following provisos:
 - A “Clearing Default” shall exist where the Bank has become a Defaulter in accordance with Rule 4 of the LCH.Ltd Default Rules.
 - The term “Associated LCH.Ltd-Transaction” shall cover the relevant LCH.Ltd-Contract.
- (3) The Counterparty herewith confirms for the benefit of LCH.Ltd (contract for the benefit of a third party), that it accepts the Clearing House Prescribed Language – as defined in the Clearing Rulebook (including the exclusion of liability) – as being binding upon itself. The Clearing House Prescribed Language is subject to English law. The version of the Clearing House Prescribed Language applicable as of the date of this Annex is attached hereto as Appendix 2 and is incorporated into this Annex subject to any amendments that may be made to it from time to time in accordance with this paragraph (3). LCH.Ltd may at any time unilaterally amend the content of the Clearing House Prescribed Language (including the exclusion of liability). The Counterparty agrees in advance to such amendments to the Clearing House Prescribed Language (including the exclusion of liability) which do not constitute a further impairment of its rights. In all other cases the Bank shall have the rights provided under Section 4 paragraph (1) of the Framework Agreement in the event the Counterparty does not consent to the amendments without undue delay.
- (4) Section 7 paragraph (3) of the Framework Agreement shall apply with the proviso that the obligation to cooperate set out therein applies to all measures required for the clearing of LCH.Ltd-Contracts, including where these are governed by English law.

6. Right of the Bank to amend the Contractual Relationship or Transactions

(1) Where, as consequence of circumstances for which the Bank bears no responsibility and notwithstanding Section 1 paragraph (10) of the Framework Agreement of this Annex, the details of an LCH.Ltd-Transaction differ from the corresponding LCH.Ltd-Contract, the Bank shall – applying due discretion and to the extent this is reasonable – be entitled to make amendments to the LCH.Ltd-Transactions in order to adjust the relevant LCH.

Ltd-Transaction to match the LCH.Ltd-Contract. The prior consent of the Counterparty is not required where such amendments – taking into account the interests of the Bank – are reasonable for the Counterparty, and in particular do not materially and adversely affect the legal and financial position of the Counterparty.

(2) Section 3 paragraph (5) of this Annex applies mutatis mutandis if it is impossible or impracticable for the Bank to make adjustments to the LCH.Ltd-Transaction or to maintain the LCH.Ltd-Transaction following its adjustment pursuant to paragraph (1).
